

Merging of work items - Checklist

The merging of work items shall be considered when the following criteria are affirmatively fulfilled:

- real need for merging is identified
- clear title and scope for the merged work item have been identified
- the scope of the merged work item remains within the grouped scopes of the original work items
- the target dates for the merged work item do not create additional delays

The decision shall be taken by simple majority, non-weighted voting.