

Table 2 - Main steps of development for each CEN deliverable

	EN	CEN/TS	CEN/TR	CWA	CEN Guide
Technical or other Body (initiation)	CEN/TC	CEN/TC	CEN/TC	CEN Workshop	BT or CA
Participation	Through National delegations	Through National delegations	Through National delegations	Through direct participation	Through National delegations
Interests represented	All	All	All	Specific	All
Standstill	Yes	No	No	No	No
Public Enquiry	Yes – 12 weeks	No	No	Optional	No
Level of approval	CEN National members	CEN National Members	CEN National Members	CEN Workshop participants	AG, CA or BT
Rule for approval	Weighted vote	Weighted vote	Simple majority	Agreement amongst participants	Simple majority
National announcement	Yes	Yes	Optional	Yes	Optional
National availability	Yes	Yes	Optional	Optional	Optional
Publication	National Standard	Optional	Optional	Optional	Optional

	EN	CEN/TS	CEN/TR	CWA	CEN Guide
Withdrawal of national conflicting standards	Yes	No	No	No	No
Languages	3 CEN official languages	At least one official language	At least one official language	At least one official language	At least one official language
Review	At least every 5 years	At least every 3 years	No limit	At least every 3 years (max 6 year lifetime)	No limit

[1] In the case of CWA's, the option is to submit the draft to external enquiry for a 60- day minimum, usually achieved through web publication. This process is obligatory in "public interest" cases